Exedition Date Changes for Bronze and Silver 2012

Dear Parent/ Guardian/ Young Person,

I am writing to inform you of two date changes to the expeditions for both Bronze and Silver.

Bronze and Silver

The Bronze Assessed Expedition /2nd Silver Practice will now take place on the 9th – 10th June 2012 for the Bronze Assessed and the evening of the 8th -10th June for the 2nd Silver Practice. This Expedition will take place in the New Forest.

Silver

The Silver Assessed Expedition will now take place on the 21st-24th June 2012. The group will travel to the Brecon Beacons to stay in bunkhouse accommodation on the evening of the 21st (pending availability) and will start their expedition on the Friday. This ensures that participants have enough rest time after the journey before starting their three day expedition.

Both groups will finish earlier than usual on the Sunday of each expedition to enable enough time to get home and recuperate before the following Monday school day.

I apologise for the date change and hope that they do not cause any inconvenience. These dates have had to be moved because of staffing and various commitments on the part of leaders.

Please speak to me as soon as possible if there are any difficulties with the above changes

Yours sincerely

Jacquie Harcus
